Strayed.

From the farm of the undersigned, four miles south east of Oregon, some time last spring, 17 head of large hogs, of various colors, marked crop off the left ear and split in both. There are some among them that were marked before I bought them. A reward of $5 will be given to any person giving information that will lead to their recovery.

LAND CASE.

In the land case of Wm. S. Marshall vs. Charles J. Price and others which involves the south half of section 8, and the north half of section 10, in township 62, range 40, situated near Craig, the following noted gentlemen were present, either as attorneys or witnesses:

Dr. J. W. Marshall, of Abbeville, S. C.; Wm. S. Marshall, of Joseph, Mo.; Hon. Bennett Pike, Esq. Circuit Judge, St. Joe; Col. W. Strong, St. Joe; C. A. Mosser, St. Joseph, Mo.; E. Dwight Parsons, of Kansas City, Mo.; C. J. Price, of Amazonia, Mo.; Hon. Ben. F. Loan, of St. Joseph, Mo.

THE FAIR.

The Holt County Fair is still progressing as we go to press. On the first day the attendance was about 7000, as usual. But the second day there were at least 2,500 present, and the remaining days are expected to be equally successful.

We have only time to speak passingly of the entries, and next week we will furnish a full list of premiums awarded. It was conceded that there was a greater display of fruit this year than last, both in the number of varieties and the size and plumpness of the fruit notwithstanding the drouth. The display of grapes was especially fine.

For a good bargain and an excellent article, go to PETER & NORMAN.

PERSONAL NOTICES.

The Hon. J. C. Roberts, one of the most extensive farmers of Buchanan county and a granger gave us a call on Monday. Mr. R. is looked upon by many as an available Democratic candidate for congress, and will surely make the race if the Democratic Congressional convention will grant him the nomination. He has had some experience as a legislator, having served one or more terms in the General Assembly of the state of Missouri.

Charles Landrum and lady, of Hillsboro, Vernon county, Wisconsin, are visiting Holt county and are the guests of James B. Curry. In passing per rail through southeastern Minnesota and Iowa, Mr. L. was struck with the waving fields of corn and vast amount of wheat, rye, barley and oats in shock and stacked up along the line of the route they traveled—grain enough, Mr. L. thought, to feed the world. No grasshoppers were seen until they came into the Missouri Valley.

Elder T. K. Hansberry, of Hlawatha, Kansas, was in this county last Sabbath and preached at the Union School House.

The Troy City furnishes the following and account of an accident which happened to Jonas Lehmer and lady, whilst buggy riding near White Cloud on the 20th of last month:

On Thursday, of last week, Jonas Lehmer and wife were enjoying a pleasure ride, on the prairie, his horse stumbled and fell, throwing both from the carriage, Mrs. L. falling across the hills, and Jonas being entangled in the running gear. The horse ran a short distance, when it was stopped, and both extricated from their perilous position. Mr. L. received some severe bruises and cuts on the head, having been dragged with his head on the ground, the whole distance run by the horse. Both have so far recovered, as to be able to appear on the streets again; but Jonas' head and face look like the sequel to an Irish wake.

Rev. David Hart formerly of Whig Valley but now of Tecumseh, Neb., favored our city with a call on Monday.

Mr. Henry Shaper accompanied by Mrs. Meyer, of Warren county, Missouri, arrived here last Friday, and are the guests of John A. Meyer. Mrs. Meyer is an old lady of nearly eighty years of age, and is the mother of John A.

Gen. Loan and E. Van Buskirk visited Kunkel spring on Saturday and Sunday. More than three hundred guests visited the springs on Sunday, and partook freely of the waters. Arthur Williams was among them.

Wm. Deau Esq., confectioner, of Forest City, and one of the most estimable of our citizens, gave us a call last Tuesday. Mr. Deau's name having been prominently mentioned in connection with the office of collector of Holt county, he wishes us to say to the public, that if the people should desire him to serve them in the position alluded to, he would most cheerfully accept, and discharge his duty to the best of his ability.

Hon. C. C. Platter, M. C. from Red Oak, Iowa, looked into our office one day last week.

H. F. Shackelford one of the well-to-do farmers of this township, also favored us with a call.

Rev. S. W. Thornton of Maryville came in one day last week. He staid but one day.

Rev. F. H. Graham, of Macon City, Mo., is in the city and in attendance on the Holt County Fair.

Hon. John B. Henderson has returned from Colorado, after quite a lengthy mountain ramble.

Register, Register!

There are a number of voters in the Oregon School District not registered. In order to give them a chance to vote at our school election to take place Saturday, Sept. 12th, a registration has been ordered next Friday, Sept. 11th. Let all who are not now on the registry list come along and register!

Holt County Items.

REMEMBER THE REPUBLICAN TOWNSHIP MEETINGS, on Saturday, September 13th! See call in another column.

Granville Kerns sold 10 acres of corn in the field at $20 per acre.

S. B. Koerber, who resides six miles north of Oregon, has 50 acres of corn upon which, he says, he will average 40 bushels to the acre. The corn in that part of the county is mostly all good.

Mr. Molter has entered at the Fair the finest lot of white corn of this year's raising we have seen.

The State Board of Equalization, which met at Jefferson City last May, valued the railroad property of the state at $24,849,112.71. The value of this class of property in Holt county has been fixed at $460,065.58. All the property of the K. C., St. Joe. & C. R. Railroad.

F. C. Meadows, who resides five miles north east of Oregon, killed a bull-snake the other day seven feet in length.

J. B. Payne intends to put the Oregon Elevator in order for the reception of grain as soon as the Fair is over. He will make the feed business a specialty. A prominent business man of St. Joseph is mentioned in connection with the business to be carried on at the Elevator.

At a called meeting of the Board of Education held Aug. 27th, 1874, it was ordered that the session of the Oregon schools shall begin with September 21st, instead of September 14th. This was done for the convenience of many patrons of the school who would not be prepared to send their children, at the time first determined on.

During the month of August Mr. William Upshou brought to the office of the county clerk, two hundred gopher scalps, receiving for the same certificates for $25.00, which were promptly honored by our county treasurer.

Circuit Court adjourned on Friday, till Wednesday, to hear an application from Jacob Horman to have the county collector restrained from the collection of school taxes assessed against him in the Oregon School District, on the ground that he was illegally attached thereto.

East Forest City Mills are now in "full blast" under the new management. J. P. Adams, President; J. H. Curtis, Secretary; R. McDonald, Treasurer; V. L. Graham, Vice-President. This mill was built by L. M. Kunkel & Co., in 1869-70, contains two runs of old machinery French Burrs, with all the machinery needed by a first-class mill. They are selling flour at from $2 to $2.25.

We regret to learn that Squire H. C. Long of Bigelow, is prostrated with an attack of typhoid fever, and is unable to do business. His physicians have forbidden all persons to visit him on business.

The work on the public road between Bigelow and Mond City is progressing finely. The men at work on it are so busy that they did not talk time to come to the Fair.

T. R. JELLEN.

Master of the Missouri State Grange, addressed the people of Holt county at the Fair Grounds, on Wednesday, the 2nd of September. The address was full of sound advice to the agricultural classes, was entirely non-political in its tendency, and was listened to with marked attention by the multitude. The crowded state of our columns forbids a further report of the address this week.
